

Speaker Information

Arkansas Urban Forestry Council

This information will be added to a Speaker Resource List maintained by AUFC. This List will be available on the AUFC website as a reference for organizations that are seeking speakers for an urban forestry-related event. By submitting this information to AUFC, you give permission to AUFC to publicize your information and availability. Return this form to AUFC, P.O. Box 4100, Hot Springs, AR 71914 OR info@arkansastrees.org.

Name _____

Job Title _____

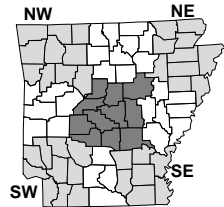

Affiliation _____

Mailing Address _____

Phone (office) _____ (mobile) _____

E-mail _____ ISA Certified Arborist? Yes No

Area(s) of availability in AR: state-wide NW north-central NE west-central central east-central SW south-central SE

Time(s) available: weekdays evenings Saturday

Require travel expense reimbursement? No Yes: mileage meals hotel

Topics you are qualified to present (indicate format next to topic: PowerPoint (PP), Lecture (L), Hands-on (H)):

Urban & community forestry overview

Tree ID

Tree species selection

Tree planting

After planting tree care

Pruning

Basic tree biology/physiology

Basic soils

Water relations

Nutrition/fertilization

Insects

Tree diseases

Tree stresses/defects

Hazard trees

Chemical applications

Trees and construction

Trees and Utilities

Cabling and bracing

Lightning protection

Tree appraisal/valuation

Rights/responsibilities of tree owners

Tree climbing

Chainsaw safety

Tree worker safety

Tree City USA

Tree inventories/management plans

Tree ordinances

Tree boards/committees

Wildland-Urban Interface

Stormwater and Urban Forestry

Elementary school program - UCF
